Travel by Train

For information on national and international train times, visit: www.thetrainline.com

From mid November 2007 high speed Eurostar International train services depart from London St Pancras and the new Ebbsfleet station in Kent. There are no direct services between the UK and Munich, but Eurostar trains arrive at Paris Gare du Nord, whilst trains for Munich depart from Paris Gare de l'Est, almost next door.

For patients and relatives wishing to break their journey in Paris, there are many hotels in the immediate vicinity of the Gare du Nord and Gare de l'Est. We have prepared a shortlist of these for your convenience, with an indication of prices, contact details and a map. A few offer access for those with limited mobility. You will find details on the following pages.
